

DESIGNER SCENTS

If you're after a distinctive fragrance, try couture designer Christian Lacroix's signature Rogue fragrance (£16-0845 601 4040) – it was inspired by his love for the colour red. The fiery fragrance contains bold floral chypre with exuberant top notes of wild red peony, blended with zesty citrus accents making it a great sensual scent for evening ceremonies. Vivienne Westwood's Let it Rock is packed with sexy oriental notes of bergamot, freesia, amber and patchouli perfect for those who prefer intense aromas.

Lust Have! Lancome's limited edition Destiny Cube (£40) comes with an eyeshadow duo on one side and a lip colour with matching gloss on the other - it will make a perfect gift for your bridesmaids

LIP SERVICE

If you're still searching for the perfect lipstick – your quest may finally be over thanks to Lipstick Queen's range of heavily pigmented textures. The capsule collection includes ten wearable colours ranging from subtle nudes to traffic-stopping reds. Each shade comes in two formulas Saints: which leaves behind a sheer tint and Sinners: which gives intense colour. £15 each from www.spacenk.co.uk. Top Tip: If you're trying matte textures for the first time, make sure your lips are soft to start with – a dab of Vaseline will do the job.

Switch to Chanel

Chanel's pretty Camélias palette, (£32) contains four creamy lippglosses, stamped with the image of Mademoiselle Coco's favourite flower - the camellia. The satin textured glosses will coat lips with a delicate shimmer.

HOUR LOVE

To pay tribute to the heritage of its iconic Eight Hour Cream, Elizabeth Arden has introduced a limited edition of the cult classic. If you can't part with yours, this compact tube, inspired by old-school packaging, is small enough to squeeze into your wedding day clutch.
